More than just a skilled surgeon, Dr Khoo is deeply committed to patient care, tailoring treatment plans to meet each individual's unique needs. His professional philosophy is founded on empathy, understanding, and world-class surgical care, attracting patients from both urban and regional communities across New South Wales.

This article explores Dr Khoo's expertise, dedication to patient outcomes, and significant contributions to the field of orthopaedic surgery.

Expertise and Specialisation in Hip Surgery

Unparalleled Surgical Techniques

As a top-rated orthopaedic hip surgeon in Sydney, Dr Oliver Khoo is known for his mastery of advanced surgical techniques that enhance recovery outcomes. His expertise in total hip replacement—using both anterior and posterior approaches—demonstrates his commitment to employing the most effective and minimally invasive procedures available today.

These techniques not only reduce recovery time but also significantly alleviate post-operative pain, allowing patients to return to daily activities sooner. By integrating cutting-edge technology into his practice, Dr Khoo ensures precision in every procedure, further cementing his reputation as one of the best hip replacement surgeons in Sydney.

Personalised Patient Care

Beyond his surgical expertise, Dr Khoo is distinguished by his dedication to patient-centred care. He prioritises listening to his patients, offering tailored advice, and recommending non-surgical treatments when appropriate.

Patients consistently praise his compassionate approach and the clarity with which he explains procedures and recovery expectations. Dr Khoo firmly believes that a friendly and caring attitude plays a crucial role in the healing process, ensuring that patients feel supported throughout their treatment journey.

Accessibility and Community Commitment

Service to Regional Communities

Dr Oliver Khoo's impact extends beyond Sydney, as he regularly provides orthopaedic services to regional areas such as Griffith, NSW. Recognising the limited access to specialised medical care in rural communities, he frequently travels to these locations, ensuring patients receive the same high-quality treatment as those in metropolitan areas.

His commitment to improving healthcare accessibility underscores his belief that all individuals deserve equal access to expert orthopaedic care, regardless of location.

Community Engagement and Outreach

Dr Khoo's dedication to his patients goes beyond the operating theatre. He actively participates in local events, such as Griffith's annual salami auction, strengthening his ties with the community.

By engaging with local traditions and fostering personal connections, Dr Khoo reinforces the importance of community involvement in healthcare. His passion for outreach further reflects his belief in a holistic approach to patient care—one that values both professional expertise and meaningful relationships.

Professional Milestones and Mentorship

Educational Background and Training

Dr Oliver Khoo's journey to becoming a leading hip replacement specialist in Sydney is marked by prestigious academic achievements and extensive training.

After earning his medical degrees from the University of New South Wales, he undertook advanced fellowship training in orthopaedic surgery. His international subspecialty training in Italy, Germany, and South Korea refined his expertise in complex procedures, including hip arthroscopy and shoulder arthroscopy.

This diverse training background has equipped Dr Khoo with the skills necessary to perform some of the most advanced orthopaedic procedures with precision and confidence.

Mentoring the Next Generation of Surgeons

Committed to the ongoing advancement of orthopaedic medicine, Dr Khoo plays an active role in mentoring emerging surgeons. As a Conjoint Associate Lecturer at the University of New South Wales, he imparts knowledge and practical insights to the next generation of orthopaedic specialists.

His dedication to teaching reflects his broader mission—to ensure excellence in the field of orthopaedic surgery continues well into the future.
